

Sports Days

Well done to everyone who took part in their sports days last week. This week early years will also have their sports morning.

Key Stage 1

Lower Key Stage 2

Upper Key Stage 2

Headteacher Awards

It has been a very quiet week for Headteachers awards, but I know all the children did extremely well meeting their new teachers on transition day and there were lots of awards giving out in the sports mornings.

Roy in Zebra Class for beautiful presentation and knowledge of co-ordinates and properties of 2D shapes.

Big thank you to FOBSA

A big thank you to FOBSA for the school summer fair. It was a lot of fun and I know the team worked very hard to make it happen.

New Junior Assistant Head

Congratulations to Mrs Winter who has successfully been recruited as our new Junior Assistant Head for next year. She will start the role in September.

Transition morning

The children all did really well on transition day getting to know their new teachers and working in their new classrooms. For our new to nursery and reception parents we also ran a coffee morning where the parents and children had a chance to make healthy wraps and try fruit and vegetables. Hopefully there were lots of ideas for creating healthy lunch boxes.

Curriculum area: English

It was lovely to walk around the school and see so many different English activities happening and notice lots of lovely examples of writing and ideas to inspire writing and reading. Here are just a few of them!

Practising key words

Working walls to inspire writing

The Enormous Crocodile story map

EAL reading group
